

The royal city of Będzin celebrates the 668th anniversary of its city charter in 2026. Polish kings have stayed within the castle walls – Henry of Valois in 1574, John III Sobieski in 1683 on his way to Vienna, and Augustus II the Strong in 1697.

Będzin is located between Katowice, the largest city in the Silesian Voivodeship, and Katowice Pyrzowice Airport. Its ideal location and excellent transport infrastructure make travel to the entire metropolitan area and the airport quick and easy.

Competition Venue
BĘDZIN ARENA - SPORTS HALL

The Będzin Arena sports hall opened in 2021. This modern facility can accommodate 2,500 spectators. It has hosted the Polish Kickboxing Championships and the Silesian Kickboxing Championships three times.

ACCOMMODATION & TRANSPORTATION

The Silesian metropolis offers a wide range of excellent accommodation options. A well-developed transport infrastructure makes reaching major attractions, business centers, and the airport quick and convenient from any point in the metropolitan area. Many accommodation options available in Będzin, Sosnowiec, Dąbrowa Górnicza, Czeladź and Katowice – check booking.com or similar sites.
